

RED DOG SALOON

JUNEAU, ALASKA

Originating during the heyday of Juneau's glorious mining era, this world famous saloon has provided hospitality and fellowship to weary travelers and local patrons alike. Early day proprietors, Earl and Thelma (Pederson) Forsythe, provided dancing and entertainment. "Ragtime Hattie" played the piano in her white gloves and silver dollar halter top. Later in territorial days, Gordie Kanouse would meet tour boats with his mule and wore a sign saying, "follow my ass to the Red Dog Saloon." In the early seventies, the Harris family bought the Saloon and later moved it to its present location. In 2008 the saloon was purchased by a group of local residents and Red Dog Mercantile was added. Red Dog souvenirs are also available online at www.RedDogSaloon.com
